August 20, 2025

Dear Valued Patient,

Please be advised that as of Monday, September 1, 2025, Richard Hsu, MD will no longer be seeing patients at The Vascular Experts. Dr Hsu will be transitioning his Median Arcuate Ligament Syndrome (MALS) practice to Stamford Hospital Medical Group in Stamford, CT.

Beginning on September 1, 2025, Stamford Hospital Medical Group will be coordinating all appointments, authorization, scheduling, and medication management for MALS care. You can contact the Stamford Hospital Medical Group office at 203.276.8582. We are working with Stamford Hospital Medical Group to create a streamlined pathway for transfer of your medical records to Dr Hsu's new practice.

Sincerely,

Trina M. Muro
